"OYSTER BAY."—TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD. Some few days since it was stated in aimost all the papers of this city and fsrooklyn, that I had attempted an outrage on a girl at Greenpoint, aged 13 years, by the name of Lupton. I pronounce the charge entirely untrue, and assert that it would be ubpossible for me either to attempt the outrage or commit it, as during the fifteen minutes in which I could have had any opportunity (if disposed to attempt the outrage, three sisters were together with me in a one seated buggy, on a public travelled road, and in daylight. I appeared with my counsel on one appeared to make any charge against me, and I was consequently discharged without any opportunity to show my innocence. I wish my friends to know and understand that I am of disposed to commit any crime of the nature charged. any crime of the nature charged.
